ORDER

This matter is before the court on defendant's unopposed MOTION TO EXTEND TIME IN WHICH TO FILE PRETRIAL MOTIONS [13]. For good cause shown, I find that the motion should be granted. The defendant will be given the requested approximate 18-day extension. Pretrial Motions shall be filed by April 13, 2007. Antoine Crawford's counsel represents that the defendant consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purpose of the Speedy Trial Act.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Defendant's MOTION TO EXTEND TIME IN WHICH TO FILE PRETRIAL MOTIONS [13] is granted. Pretrial motions shall be filed on or before April 13, 2007.

2. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between March 26, 2007 and April 13, 2007, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel required additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

DATED this 27th day of March, 2007.

BY THE COURT:

s/ Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
